OUR VISION

Rice High School and Iona College are deeply rooted in the traditions of Blessed Edmund Rice, the founder of the Congregation of Christian Brothers. Edmund Rice believed that equal educational opportunity for all was the only way to break the shackles of poverty and ignorance. Today we continue this journey and Blessed Edmund Rice's mission in Harlem, New York.

Essential Elements of an Edmund Rice education:

- promotes religious values;
- proclaims and witnesses to its Catholic identity;
- stands in solidarity with those marginalized;
- fosters a community of faith;
- values the dignity of each person;
- calls for collaboration in its mission; and,
- pursues excellence.
