WRITING WORKSHOP

Your life is a unique journey, a complicated, rich and daring tapestry of being...a story waiting to be told. All of your memories are history – your history. The Writing Workshop provides a framework for people to bring into conscious awareness things about themselves and others that have remained submerged. Memoir-type stories are a popular choice, but we also write essays, movie and book reviews, and poetry, and experience several other forms of writing. Stories are shared and gently critiqued
