LIBRARY FACILITIES

Ryan Library (New Rochelle)

Ryan Library, the main library, includes an entrance/atrium, six group study rooms and a seminar room offering iMac and multimedia technology, a reference area, a help desk, three technology classrooms, rich wood carrels and chairs, 90+ workstations, study tables and lamps, a climate controlled archive room, a 208 seat auditorium, and a café. Second and third floor rooms are designated as silent study, quiet group study, or group work.

Helen T. Arrigoni Library/Technology Center (New Rochelle)

The Arrigoni Library is conveniently located near the residence halls. This library boasts the latest in modern library design, which gives the space a light and airy look while creating dynamic workspaces. These include study “pods” containing 52 dual boot iMac computers and mesh privacy screens with noise cancelling technology. Modern Herman Miller furnishings and comfortable design make it the perfect site to use computers for long periods of time. The Helen T. Arrigoni Library/Technology Center houses journal and monographic collections in Mass Communication, Education, and Computer Science. The Education Curriculum Room occupies a second floor area.

Rockland Graduate Center Library (Pearl River)

The Rockland Graduate Center Library serves the graduate programs offered there. This site has a core collection of books and periodicals. The collection is supplemented by loans from the New Rochelle campus libraries and by ebooks and databases available on or off-campus.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

The Iona College Libraries hold 240,000+ books, 4,000+ audio/visual resources, and access to 10,000+ ebooks, 100,000+ print and on-line journals, and 80+ databases covering most disciplines. The Libraries provide online access to thousands of electronic resources and journals for both on and off-campus users. Resources located at libraries worldwide can be obtained through Document Delivery/Inter Library Loan.

REFERENCE AND RESEARCH ASSISTANCE

Reference Librarians are available more than 65 hours a week to assist with research. They are available in-person, via email, phone or chat. Students can make an appointment to work one on one with a librarian through the Research Assistance Program.
