Center for Campus Ministries
Contract for Participation

The Iona College Center for Campus Ministries is dedicated to building a community of faith and compassion. Inspired by the Catholic tradition and the charism of Blessed Edmund Rice, we are committed to:

- Worship, prayer and spiritual life
- Service to the poor and marginalized
- Education and action for peace and social justice
- Hospitality to people of diverse backgrounds
- Reflection of lived values and beliefs

Participating in Iona in Mission team is both an honor and responsibility. Please review the following list of regulations. This contract is valid for any and all Iona in Mission projects. Please remember that all actions of participants reflect upon the entire Iona in Mission program and Iona College.

• Alcohol/Drugs/Conduct

Initial_____

Iona in Mission is an Iona College program and therefore all participants must conduct themselves in accordance with Iona College Student Handbook and all other applicable rules and regulations. Any use of drugs or alcohol, whether or not the participant is 21 year of age, endangers the integrity and future of Iona in Mission projects and will not be tolerated.

• Finances

Initial_____

Participants are responsible for the total cost of the mission project. Should the participant be unable to participate in the mission project, he/she still must pay all non-refundable expenses incurred on his/her behalf

• Community Expectations

Initial_____

It is the expectation and desire that all participants will work together and build community during the mission project. In order to achieve this, all individuals must be open to the entire group and avoid exclusion.

By signing below participants are agreeing to follow all of the rules and regulations of the program.

I have read and understand the above term and agree to accept them,
