HONORARY DEGREE

Margaret “Maggie” Timoney ’89, ’92MBA

Recognized internationally as a trailblazing leader, Margaret “Maggie” Timoney currently serves as the President & CEO of HEINEKEN USA headquartered in White Plains, N.Y. During her 25-year tenure with the HEINEKEN Group, Timoney has been recognized for producing transformational results, demonstrated on a financial level combined with a high impact in both cultural and social change. Throughout her career, Timoney has excelled as a senior woman executive in an industry traditionally dominated by men. Today, she is the first woman to serve as chief executive officer of a major beer company in the United States.

Timoney joined HEINEKEN USA in 1998 as a national sales manager. Since then, she has held leadership positions in the United States, The Netherlands, Canada and Ireland, including general manager of HEINEKEN Canada; senior vice president of human resources in the U.S.; and CEO of HEINEKEN Ireland. Prior to joining HEINEKEN, she worked for Gallo and an Anheuser-Busch wholesaler.

A native of Ballina, County Mayo, Ireland, Timoney was recruited to play basketball at Iona and went on to become one of the greatest basketball players in the history of the program. She was inducted into the Iona University Arrigoni Hall of Fame in 2001, ranking as the Gaels’ all-time leading scorer at the time, tallying 1,894 career points.

Timoney earned a bachelor’s degree in international studies in 1989 and a Master of Business Administration with a concentration in organizational behavior in 1992 from Iona. She remains a generous, active and engaged member of the Iona community, from speaking with students and offering career advice to attending alumni gatherings and hosting networking events. Since 2015, she has served as a member of the Board of Trustees and regularly credits her time at Iona with helping to form and shape her leadership skills.

*For her ethical, trailblazing, and inspirational leadership; generosity in sharing her experience; wisdom and commitment to service, Iona University hereby confers upon MARGARET TIMONEY, the degree of Doctor of Business Administration, honoris causa.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Originally, academic costumes were worn by members of religious orders who established most of the early universities. Academic garb consisted of the clerical robe and a hood (which actually served as that). While these costumes were similar, different orders frequently modified their gowns and hoods. Some officials also wore insignia or other adornments to identify their positions.

When universities achieved identity as educational institutions, the design and symbolism of academic regalia began to change. Universities in Europe (and in overseas areas culturally tied to Europe) developed colorful gowns and caps, and the hood became a designator of degrees.

Institutions in the United States were, until recently, rather conservative in the matter of academic garb. While tendencies in the other direction began to manifest themselves in 1895, they were checked temporarily when a conference of institutions agreed that the basic academic garb should be a black robe and cap, and a hood indicating the wearer's degree and the institution from which it was received.

In recent times, an increasing number of institutions have adopted gowns and caps which incorporate official colors. The pace of this change was accelerated when Harvard University introduced its crimson doctoral gown. Other institutions felt challenged to match this resplendence. While embellishments were first limited to the doctor's attire, the use of colored gowns and caps for bachelor's and master's degree recipients is a current trend.

Participants in academic ceremonies normally wear the academic regalia to which they are entitled by virtue of the degrees they hold. Members of boards of trustees may wear doctoral gowns, but the hoods must signify the degrees they actually hold.

The field of study of an earned degree is identified by a standard code of colors used as the edging of hoods, as part of the decoration of gowns, and for tassels on caps. The standard color code follows:

Agriculture .....	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities .....	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business .....	Drab
Dentistry .....	Lilac
Economics .....	Copper
Education .....	Light Blue
Engineering .....	Orange
Fine Arts .....	Brown
Forestry .....	Russet
Journalism .....	Crimson

IONA ALMA MATER

Iona, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail, to thee!
We raise a cry to glorify
Thy name where'er we be.
To thee we owe allegiance;
Abroad we spread thy fame;
Throughout the world we praise thee,
Proud to bear thy name.

Great Columba, trusted patron
Guide our University year by year.
Founder of the first Iona,
Sing we now in accents clear:
Iona, Alma Mater,
On high thy glories soar;
Ionians go forth again
To praise thee evermore.

– G.P. Lyons, CFC
